

Gifts & Donations

The library accepts donations of recent books, recorded books on CD, music CDs and DVDs. Donations should be clean and in good condition. A rule of thumb is; donate it to the library if you would give it to a friend. Also, please do not bring more items than you can carry into the library. Tuesdays and Thursdays when the Book Nook is open is the best time to donate materials.

The library does not accept donations of textbooks, VHS/cassettes or encyclopedias.

All donations are accepted without condition, and immediately become the property of the library. They cannot be returned. Some donations may be added to the collection. The same criteria for inclusion in the library's collection apply to donations. Items not added to the collection are turned over to the Friends of the Library for the Book Nook. Donations added to the collection may be subsequently withdrawn when they are worn or when their content is no longer current.

A receipt for tax purposes may be provided. Library staff cannot assign a dollar value to items donated, but can include a description of what is donated.

Memorial gifts of books or money are also accepted with suitable bookplates placed in the book. Specific memorial books can be ordered for the library upon request granted the request meets the criteria established by the Library Board of Trustees.
